

Sim Kehilla

Imagine you and some friends are building a Jewish Community from scratch. You have $35 Million to allocate, and you must choose which institutions are the biggest priorities. Discuss with your group what your community would look like. Be prepared to explain your choices to other groups.

Adult Education Program – $500,000

Anti-Defamation League – $1 Million

Eruv – $100,000

Hebrew Home for the Aged – $8 Million

Hebrew School – $500,000

Jewish Community Center – $8 Million

Jewish Day School – $10 Million

Jewish Federation – $8 Million

Kosher Bakery – $250,000

Kosher Butcher – $250,000

Kosher Pizzeria – $250,000

Kosher Supermarket – $250,000

Mikva – $5 Million

Shul – $10 Million

Tomchei Shabbat – $250,000

Youth Programs – $400,000

Prepared by Rabbi Aaron Levitt - Kemp Mill Synagogue, Silver Spring, MD

Cut out the boxes so you can move them around and prioritize them during your debate.

Shul - $10 Million	Adult Education Program - $500,000
Eruv - $100,000	Anti-Defamation League - $1 Million
Kosher Pizzeria - $250,000	Kosher Market - $250,000
Kosher Bakery - $250,000	Kosher Butcher - $250,000
Jewish Federation - $8 Million	Jewish Day School - $10 Million
Hebrew School - $500,000	Jewish Community Center - $8 Million
Hebrew Home for the Aged - $8 Million	Tomchei Shabbat - $250,000
Youth Programs - $400,000	Mikva - $5 Million